Shelley is the Founder of Shaz'z Organizing Solutions. A proud member of the Better Business Bureau for the last two years. For the last 25 years Shelley has been working in the public sector in customer service, and working with non profit organizations. She has been organizing for many years for friends and family. It was suggested to Shelley because she was so talented and had the passion and desire for organizing she should start her own business. Shelley has been awarded, “The Someone Special Award” for outstanding service in the community.

We are Licensed, Bonded, Insured and WCB. We honor every client with professionalism, integrity and confidentiality.
